VIII. General Data Protection Regulations – Information for statutory representatives of children

Considering the implementation of the Regulation of the European Parliament and the Council (EU) 2016/679 of 27th April 2016 (JoL EU L 119 of 04.05.2016) on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC, I should inform as follows:

- 1) The Administrator of your and your child's personal data is a limited liability company under its business name of SIS Sp. z o.o. having its seat in Szczecin, registered in the Register of Companies of the National Court Register, run by the District Court of Szczecin-Centrum, XIII Commercial Division, entry number KRS: 0000305146, which is a body running a primary and secondary school under the name of the Szczecin International School and a kindergarten under the name of the International Kindergarten of Szczecin, having its seat in Szczecin, address: ul. bł. Królowej Jadwigi 27-28, Szczecin;
- 2) Contact to Data Protection Officer: iod@sis.info.pl
- 3) Your personal data, as well as data of your child, are processed in relation to activities, implemented upon your request, aimed at cooperation in terms of providing education in Primary School/Secondary School/ education and care in the Kindergarten/, for your child and to implement such cooperation within the scope necessary to perform the contract, referred to above (Art. 6.1 letter b) of Data Protection Regulation of 27th April 2016)
- 4) Additionally, the data administrator may process your personal data to fulfil its legal obligations related to its education activity (Art. 6.1 c) of the Data Protection Regulation of 27th April 2016), including: reporting to public authorities, such as supervision bodies and other entities schools/kindergartens are required to report according to the law, in particular based on the Education Law and related regulations (including purposes related to settlement of subsidy), especially based on provisions of the Education Law and the Law on the System of Education.
- 5) Additionally, in certain situations, it is or may turn out to be necessary to process your personal data for other purposes than those listed above in relation to the justified interests of the administrator/schools/kindergartens (Art. 6.1 letter f) of the Data Protection Regulation of 27th April 2016), especially
 - a) for purposes related to IT services and ensuring IT security related to information kept by the administrator, in particular management of mobile equipment, management of access and access rights to systems and applications;
 - b) for purposes related to physical safety of school/kindergarten, including internal and external visual monitoring and recording people entering and leaving;
 - c) in relevant instances, for purposes related handling disputes, as well as proceedings before public bodies and other proceedings, including claims and counterclaims;
 - d) if applicable, for purposes related to cooperation with suppliers, contractors, as well as in relation to the organization and participation in competitions, conferences and events, and promotion by the administrator;
- 6) In cases other than referred to in 3), 4) and 5) above, your personal data and your child's data will be processed solely according to previously expressed consent that specifies its scope and goal.
- 7) Your personal data and your child's data will be processed for the period necessary for the implementation of purposes referred to in 3), 4) and 5) above, i.e. for the performance of the contract between you and the administrator, for a period until the termination of that contract, and after that period for time and within the scope required by the law or for the implementation by the administrator its justified interest as specified in point 5) above, and in the case of a consent being granted for processing data (after termination or expiry of contract), your personal data will be processed until your consent is withdrawn.
- 8) You are entitled to request from the administrator the following:
 - a) access to personal data, including right to receive copies of such data,
 - b) right to correct data,
 - c) right to limit data processing in case:
 - data subject questions correctness of such personal data,
 - processing of data is not in line with the law, and the data subject refuses to cancel data and instead requests the limitation of such data,
 - administrator does no longer need data for its purposes, but the data subject needs such data to establish, defend or make claims,
 - d) right to withdraw his/her consent (previously granted to data processing. The withdrawal of consent does not have influence on the compliance with the right to process data, which was granted based on the consent before its withdrawal),
 - e) right to object to the processing of personal data, when data processing is necessary for purposes related to justified interests of the administrator,

- f) right to request the cancelling of personal data (i.e. right to be forgotten) in case:
- data are no longer necessary for the original purpose they were collected or processed otherwise,
 - the data subject has objected to the processing of data,
 - the data subject has withdrawn his/her consent to processing and there are no other grounds for processing,
 - data are processed in breach of the law,
 - data must be cancelled to meet an obligation specified in law.

9) You are entitled to complain to the relevant supervision body, i.e. the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.

10) Providing of personal data is a precondition for the conclusion and performance of the contract between you and the administrator, it is related to the implementation of obligations specified by the law, or is necessary for purposes related to legally justified interests of the administrator referred to above. Depending on circumstances, your failure to provide required data may constitute an obstacle or difficulty in concluding a contract of the provision of services. Providing of other data than required by law is voluntary. Within the scope of data collection based on your consent, the provision of personal data is voluntary.

11) In relation to the processing of your personal data for purposes specified in 3), 4) and 5) above, your personal data can be made available to the following recipients or categories of recipients:

- public bodies and bodies implementing public tasks commissioned by public authorities, within the scope and purposes specified by law (e.g. Superintendent's Office, Ministry of National Education, local governments),
- entities participating in processes necessary for the performance of the contract on providing education and care services
- entities supporting the administrator in its business processes, including entities processing personal data on behalf of the administrator, i.e. Data Processors.

The above rules shall be applicable as of 25th May 2018.
